

Learn how to do finances in minutes

DoLearnFinance is a game-changing tool for entrepreneurs.

This is brilliant. I watched these short videos and now I feel like an expert.

I never really 'got' accountancy before. I had a blind spot when it came to finances. Now you can learn how to do finances in minutes. It sounds too good to be true, but seeing is believing.

All you have to do is watch a few short videos and, within minutes, you will be able to create, test and explain smart business and financial models.

"DoLearnFinance is a game-changing tool for entrepreneurs, teachers, students, advisers, lenders and investors," says Prof. Thomas Cooney, DIT School of Business.

"The vision of the founders is to help create an environment where no small business fails (or fails to reach its potential) because of a financially naïve business model," says Jack Foley, CEO of DoLearnFinance.

To get access to DoLearnFinance and Fablinker, REGISTER FOR FREE.

Watch the videos below.

Finance for startups – first steps

What happens when you include your overheads

What happens when you include funding and fixed assets

How can you increase your profits?

How to make sure you don't run out of cash

How to assess your business model like a pro

Don't forget, to get access to the Fablinker tool you just have to register here. It's free to use.