
New Bank of Ireland community hub in Wexford Town

Bank of Ireland has officially opened the doors to its new community hub in Wexford Town.

The branch underwent a major refurbishment. As part of this, a new events room has been added and will be available to local clubs, charities, societies and business organisations to host meetings or events free of charge. The space can cater for up to 50 people and has state of the art technology facilities that can be used for presentations.

How people want to bank

"Serving customers brilliantly is a key priority for Bank of Ireland. We want to offer services and products in line with how people want to bank – both now and into the future," says JJ Keyes, Head of Bank of Ireland, Wexford.

"With more than 250 branches nationwide, we are proud to have the largest branch network of any bank in Ireland. We are delighted to be able to provide the people of Wexford Town with this new facility to enable them to host meetings and events free of charge."

Make contact

For more details on how to book an event or meeting in the space, please contact:

Andrew Owen (branch manager) Wexford Town, andrew.owen@boi.com .

Karen Edwards (customer service manager) Wexford Town, karen.edwards@boi.com.