

'Women Funding Women' is coming to Dublin

The global event series 'Women Funding Women' is coming to Dublin. Book your place now.

Dell and Springboard Enterprises will host the Dublin session of the 'Women Funding Women' global tour on February 6, 2019.

Whether you are leading a business, looking to invest, or just wanting to learn, the event is free to attend. You can book your seat here: <https://wfwdublin.eventbrite.com>

The event is part of a series taking place in cities around the world to promote investments by and investment in women-led growth businesses.

The program starts with a fireside chat, featuring first-person insights from an entrepreneur and her investor, followed by presentations from two growth stage entrepreneurs, accompanied by crowd-sourced resources, comments and connections.

About Women Funding Women

The 2018-2019 event series 'Women Funding Women' will showcase the expertise of investors, innovators and influencers. "We shine a spotlight on the investments made in women-led companies while encouraging more women to invest," say the organisers.

Ten cities

Co-hosted by Dell and the Dell Women's Entrepreneur Network (DWEN) and Springboard Enterprises, the series travels to ten cities - Mexico City, São Paulo, Lisbon, Bangalore, Singapore, Tel Aviv, Stockholm, Dublin, Austin, Washington DC - to foster a global community that supports and invests in women by promoting investment opportunities and encouraging collaboration.

What is Springboard Enterprises?

Since 2000, 730 Springboard portfolio companies seeking investment of financial and human capital for product development and expansion have raised $8.6 billion, created tens of thousands of new jobs, and generate billions of dollars in annual revenues.

What is Dell Women's Entrepreneur Network (DWEN)?

Through the Dell Women's Entrepreneur Network (DWEN), Dell is connecting female entrepreneurs across the globe with networks, sources of capital, knowledge and technology, giving them the power to do more.

You can also help spread the word across Twitter using the text and link below.

- #WomenFundingWomen- women standing on the peak of all possibilities @Springboardent & @Dell on Feb 6 @5:00pm <https://wfdublin.eventbrite.com>